The position for which you are considering in the upcoming officer elections require a commitment to serve the association and its members in fulfilling the elected role listed below. The professionalism and integrity required with this obligation include the responsibility of governing the association as a volunteer in a manner exhibiting honesty and good faith. Rather than promoting one's own personal agenda or interest, you are challenged to promote an unbiased service representing the association's membership and to avoid any wrongdoing, disloyalty or cheating in any form in which may cause harm to the association and/or its members.

Offices to be elected each year include:

President-Elect: The president-elect shall hold office for a period of one (1) year and shall become the president of the association at the end of the current president's term. The president-elect shall serve as acting chairperson of the Executive Committee and presiding office over monthly chapter meetings in the absence of the president and perform other such duties as may be assigned by the president. The president-elect shall prepare the program for the monthly meeting in conjunction with the president. The president-elect shall advance to the office of president if the office of president is vacated. The President-Elect shall serve as the chairperson of the membership and program committees.

Secretary. The secretary shall hold office for a period of one (1) year and shall keep the minutes of the meetings of the members, give notice of meetings or other events in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws, be custodian of the association's records, keep correspondence of the association, and maintain a database of all current members of the association including contact information.

Historian. The Historian shall maintain a narrative account of the current year's events and a photographic history.

Treasurer. The Treasure shall maintain current and accurate financial records of the chapter.
